

.NET Developers Needed!

About the Job

Looking for programming TALENT! Mediocre developers need not apply.

We are a 10-year old eCommerce software company in Tampa, FL focused on Enterprise Level software solutions delivered using .NET & SQL Server 2005.

We are looking for .NET Programmers with SQL skills to compliment our development dream team.

Company is owned by a programmer w/ no bureaucracy/red tape. Company is growing and we need your help to keep us ahead of the curve in demand & technology. Looking for people to deliver solutions and introduce new technologies.

Skills required:

- ASP.NET
- C#
- T-SQL (Everything is stored procedure based)
- Web Services
- At least 2 years of production experience with WEB BASED applications
- Internationalization is a BIG plus

Types of projects you'd be expected to be a part of:

- Shipping/Fulfillment/Packslips/Inventory Management
- eCommerce Shopping Cart experience
- International business transactions (eCommerce)
- Credit Card Processing
- Locale-based programming
- Multi-Lingual sites
- Multi-Currency sites
- Credit Card and ACH processing
- SQL Server optimization

100% of our projects are on .NET 2.0/3.5. Are you falling behind? Jump on a team that's committed to stay up-to-date with technology.

Please, no sleepers. This is a fun atmosphere with rapid project turnaround. Most projects are weekly vs. monthly. There are no 9-month projects that drag on and on. 99.9% of all projects are delivered; this is an astounding rate. If you are a 'best of breed' developer, we want to hear from you. Most people know if they are heads and toes above their colleagues. Here, you will be appreciated and challenged w/ the latest technologies. Experience doesn't equate to 'greatness' either. Looking for greatness.

Contract acceptable but only through individuals.

Benefits: Major medical, vacation & holiday pay and 401(k) w/ matching contributions.

Intangibles: Everyone gets dual 22' LCDs minimum (many w/ 3 LCDs), Herman-Miller Aeron chairs. Dress code is business casual. Free parking (we're not downtown). Our application is entirely web-based so there's no per PC/client support.

Conveniently located near I-75 & I-4 in Sabal Park.

Telecommuting: No

Relocation $: No

This is a temp-to-perm position

Only a mediocre person is always at his best.
